What You Need to Know When Hiring a Geriatric Care Manager

Geriatric Care Managers Provide a Connection to Care

As a person starts to become frail, the act of managing his or her care becomes increasingly difficult as the number of medical specialists involved in maintaining physical wellbeing increases. With so many specialists micromanaging the senior's health, the "big picture" often gets overlooked. It is important to maintain clear lines of communication between all of the healthcare professionals. This is the geriatric care manager's function. To assist in a search for a qualified geriatric care manager, use the below guestionnaire when making inguiries. What services do you provide? Assessment and evaluation? _____ Written plan for services? _____ Coordination of services? Regular monitoring? Follow-up? Routine reporting to family? If providing routine monitoring, how frequently do you visit the care recipient? How long are the visits?______ Others? What other professionals do you consult with or have working for you? ___ How do you supervise others working for you? _____ How do you monitor the quality of the services you provide?

| What de | egrees and qualifications do you have? |
|--------------|---|
| To which | h organizations do you belong? |
| | American Society on Aging? |
| Ŏ | Gerontological Society of America? |
| Ŏ | National Association of Professional Geriatric Care Managers? |
| O | National Association of Social Workers? |
| \mathbf{O} | National Council on Aging? |
| \mathbf{O} | Others? |
| What ar | re your fees? |
| 0 | For initial assessment? |
| 0 | Ongoing hourly or retainer fee? |
| O | What additional fees are there? |
| O | Are there any discounts or reduced fees available, if necessary? |
| \mathbf{O} | How often do you bill? |
| Do you | available outside of business hours if needed? Yes No have a backup care manager when you are not available? Yes No |
| When a | n emergency occurs, what is your procedure? |
| What do | you consider an emergency or crisis? |
| | |
| Does th | is care manager appear interested in meeting the needs of my loved one? Yes No |
| | re manager knowledgeable about the available in the area my loved one lives? Yes No |
| Did the | care manager return calls promptly? Yes No |
| Do you | feel you could work well with this person? Yes No |
| Do you | feel you can trust this person with sensitive and confidential information? Yes No |